

Families Pop-up Performance Summer Holidays Programme 2018

Pop-up Performance takes place on Saturdays at 11.00, 13.00 & 15.00. Performance duration approximately 30 minutes.

Saturdays 28 July, 4, 11, 18 August – The Nonsense Museum

Would you like to explore the museum comedy style? Tell a funny story about an object? It's time to laugh out loud with some comedy capers. This is a promenade performance with level access starting in the Paintings Gallery, Level 3.

Location: Paintings, Room 81 & 82, Tapestries, Room 94, Theatre and Performance, room 103

Saturday 25 August – Clara Button and the Magical Hat Journey

Grab a hat and join Clara Button and her brother Ollie on a magical journey around the Museum. This is a promenade performance with level access.

Location: Islamic Middle East, Room 42, South Asia, Room 41, Fashion, Room 40.

Saturday 1 September – Welcome to Morris and Co

Step back in time to the Victorian era and enter the workshop of famous designer and campaigner, William Morris. Explore being a furniture maker, an artist and march for votes for women. Performed by Alex Kanefsky and Amanda Maud.

Location: Level 3, Paintings, Room 82

Saturdays 8 and 29 September – Polito's Royal Menagerie.

Meet Mr Polito and his animals from around the world, with enchanting puppets and music. Performed by Lisa O'Hanlon and Dan Willis.

Location: Level 6, Ceramics, Room 138 – please speak to a member of staff if you need help finding the performance location.

Saturdays 15 and 22 September – Stardust

Time travel to the future with energetic and dynamic dancers. These performances are directed by creative company Scanners Inc. and dance powerhouse, House of Absolute. This is a promenade performance with level access in the Paintings Gallery, Level 3.

Location: Level 3, Paintings, Room 87

Part of the London Design Festival. Inspired by The Future Starts Here exhibition.