DOMES

The Dome, with its soaring ceiling, classical architecture and marble floors, complemented by Dale Chihuly's extraordinary central glass sculpture, is one of London's most elegant and impressive settings for receptions, dinners and dinner dances.

A pre-dinner drinks reception can be held in the Dorothy and Michael Hintze Sculpture Galleries or John Madejski Garden

Please note that a dancefloor must be hired when organising a dinner dance.

Essential information

PAUL AND JILL RUDDOCK GALLERY

Over ten years in the planning, two years in the building and showcasing the world's largest collection from the period, the V&A's Medieval & Renaissance Galleries opened in 2009 to great critical acclaim.

The ten galleries include The Paul and Jill Ruddock Gallery. This is next to the Dome and is a stunning space for receptions, pre-dinner drinks and dinners.

Large scale works, once part of impressive Renaissance buildings, are displayed in the context of a cityscape. Dramatic sculptures by Giambologna and others stand in a setting evocative of a courtyard and garden. The choir screen from the Cathedral of St John at 's-Hertogenbosch in the Netherlands, one of the largest objects on show, provides a powerful backdrop for events.

Essential information

Reception 250 guests

Dinner 80 guests

Hire Fee

Reception from £10,000

Dinner from £13,000

Due to the objects on open display, it is not possible to serve red wine in this gallery.

JOHN MADEJSKI GARDEN

The John Madejski Garden is one of the most elegant outdoor venues in London. It is a tranquil space featuring a paved ellipse with water jets between steps, which are illuminated at night. The design allows the beautiful 19th-century terracotta facades to be more visible and provides flexibility to transform the space for different types of events. The garden is one of London's hidden treasures and is particularly magical when lit.

Essential information

Reception 600 guests

Pre-dinner drinks 400 guests

Hire fee

From £10,000

Marquees are not permitted in the garden. The Dome provides an alternative venue in case of rain and is included in the venue hire.

RAPHAEL GALLERY

Our largest and most prestigious space, the Raphael Gallery houses some of the most important surviving examples of Renaissance art in the world. The seven Raphael cartoons, dating back to 1516, are complemented by a gilded Spanish altarpiece lending a striking backdrop to drinks receptions, dinners, concerts and awards presentations.

Essential information

Reception 400 guests

Dinner 400 guests

Hire fee

Reception from £11,000

Dinner from £15,000

Clients are welcome to use the Dorothy and Michael Hintze Sculpture Galleries, John Madejski Garden or Dome for pre-dinner drinks, depending on the number of guests.

FASHION GALLERIES

The Fashion Galleries host a series of stunning temporary fashion exhibitions. The dress collection covers four centuries of European fashionable dress, from the beginning of the 18th century to the latest creations of the 21st century, and from the ornate richness of a court mantua to the minimalism of contemporary couture.

MORRIS AND GAMBLE ROOMS

These unique rooms are available for early morning and evening hire

The Gamble Room is beautifully tiled with ceramics by Maw and Minton, and the windows feature stained glass incorporating the Royal Arms.

The adjacent Morris Room is a classic example of William Morris's early domestic decorative style and was completed in 1868. The décor follows the Elizabethan Revival style favoured by the Pre-Raphaelites with painted panels and stained glass windows by Sir Edward Burne-Jones.

Essential Information

Morris Room 40 guests

Gamble Room 140 guests

Hire Fee

Breakfast from £3,000

Dinner from £13,000

For logistical reasons, catering is arranged with Clerkenwell Green.
