Drop-in Design: Summer Programme 2019

Drop-in Design takes place on Sundays 10.30 – 17.00

Sunday 7, 14, 21 & 28 July: Design for the Future

Invent to save the planet! Follow the 'reduce, reuse, recycle' code and use screen printing to design a new Earth friendly packaging for what you eat. Inspired by the FOOD: Bigger than the Plate exhibition.

Location: Level 0, Sackler Centre for arts education, Lunchroom

Sunday 4, 11, 18 & 25 August: The Imagination Station: Summer 2019

Make a collaborative magazine with art collective Fallen Fruit using collage making and storytelling. Everyone is welcome. Inspired by the FOOD: Bigger than the Plate exhibition.

Location: Level 0, The John Madejski Garden or Sackler Centre for arts education, Lunchroom if wet

Sunday 1 & 8 September: Weaving Stories

Design your own textile pieces inspired by travellers' stories and the Islamic Middle East collection.

Location: Level 0, The John Madejski Garden or Sackler Centre for arts education, Lunchroom if wet

Sunday 15 September: Click and Stitch

Be inspired by the beautiful fabrics and tapestries on display and dress up in your own digital textile design. Part of the London Design Festival.

Location: Level 0, Sackler Centre for arts education, Lunchroom

Sunday 22 & 29 September: Digital Patterns

Be amazed by incredible patterns and shapes in the Islamic Middle East gallery. Try experimental drawing and design your own digital tile using iPads.

Location: Level 0, South East Asia Gallery, Room No. 47c
