

Dance Photography Masterclass

Saturday 6th June - Sunday 7th June, 10:30 - 17:00

Lydia and Manfred Lecture Theatre (Day 1) and Digital Studio (Day 2)

Take your photography skills to the next level with this unique opportunity to work with dancers. Taking inspiration from your live subjects and a visit to the 'Royal Academy of Dance at 100' exhibition display, establish your own dance photography practice.

Day 1

10:30 Welcome and workshop overview

10:50 Task 1

11:10 Talk: Photographing dance and capturing movement

12:00 Task 2: Freezing movement

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Task 3: Blurring movement

15:00 Talk: Working with dancers

15:30 Task 4: Direction

16:50 Day 1 summary

17:00 End of day 1

Day 2

10:30 Outline of day

10:40 Talk: History and contemporary practice

11:30 Post-production 1: Digital workflow with Adobe Lightroom and Photoshop

12:30 Work on own images

13:00 Lunch

- 14:00 Post-production 2: Output to web, print and press
- 14:30 Tour: On Point: Royal Academy of Dance at 100 exhibition
- 16:00 Discussion: Your next steps in photography and bringing your own ideas to life
- 16:50 Day 2 summary
- 17:00 End of day

Note: Please ensure you bring along a digital camera with manual controls (ideally an DSLR camera) charged and with cables to each session.