The V&A is the world’s leading museum of art and design and home to a collection spanning 5,000 years of human ingenuity. The museum opened following the success of the Great Exhibition of 1851, as the flagstone of what we now recognise as the heart of the museum district of London.

We hold over two million objects - from fashion and jewellery to ceramics, sculpture and digital design - and house 17 national collections. In addition to our outstanding free permanent collection, the V&A offers a programme of ground-breaking exhibitions and an extensive events programme. We aim to champion the creative industry, inspire the next generation and spark everyone’s imagination.

Reflecting its reputation as the world’s leading museum of art and design, the V&A’s magnificent South Kensington building is a unique gem of Victorian architecture and an iconic London landmark.

Hiring the V&A for an event is a wonderful opportunity to demonstrate your support for the arts and to associate with one of the most recognisable and admired international brands. Venue hire is vital to ensuring that the V&A continues to grow and thrive. By choosing to host your event with us, you are enable us to maintain and enhance the Museum’s leadership in the fields of art and design, and ensure that it remains a vital part of our public life and heritage.

A treasure house with collections of fabulous scope and diversity, the Museum boasts extraordinary rooms and spaces which offer exceptional possibilities for entertaining in a prestigious central London location.

In this brochure, you will find a variety of unique spaces available to hire, for events large or small. From sunny summer soirees to dazzling Christmas parties, glamourous charity fundraisers to simple networking events, the V&A has a space to suit every occasion.

FAQS

What is included in the venue hire fee?

The venue hire fee includes exclusive use of the agreed event areas, a dedicated Event Manager who will be with you through every stage of planning, security staff, cleaning staff, an electrician, and basic lighting in the John Madejski Garden and Raphael Gallery. The Lecture Theatre comes equipped with basic AV equipment.

Can we use our own suppliers?
As a Grade I listed building, with priceless objects on display, we do ask that you choose from our exclusive list of approved suppliers for catering, production, entertainment, furniture, and floristry. Furthermore, due to the short set up time, it is in your interest to be in the hands of trusted companies who know the venue well.

Are there conservation regulations for spaces?

Due to the delicate nature of the building, there are conservation regulations in place in many of our galleries. Dancing, as well as dark/strong coloured food and drink is only permitted in the Dome space, or at a seated dinner. No fire, fireworks, dry ice, glitter, animals (except registered worker animals), helium balloons, paint, henna, ink, or hairspray are permitted anywhere on site.

Can we hire multiple spaces?

Yes, subject to availability, for larger events, it is certainly possible to hire multiple spaces around the Museum to provide your guests with a true journey through the V&A.

What are your standard hire times?

The standard hire period for dinners is from 18.45 – 23.00. Please be aware that set up begins once the Museum has closed to the public at 17.45.

What if I want my event to finish later?

This is certainly possible. For an additional fee of £2,000 + VAT per hour, you can extend the finish time of your event until 2.00am at the latest. Late finishes are subject to availability.

Are there any days that are not available for venue hire?

Yes – as we are open Late on Fridays, unfortunately we are not able to offer these evenings for venue hire. We are available for every other evening in the week.

Will there be anyone else in the building?

We offer exclusive hire of our venue, so when you hold your event, you can be sure that your guests will be the only external people allowed access to the building.

Can we provisionally hold a date?

You can hold up to two dates for your event, free of charge and with no obligation. If you are holding any dates, we do ask that you come and see the Museum in person, then we will ask for a decision by a certain date. Please be in touch if you would like to check availability and arrange a visit.

How do we confirm our booking?

Following a show round, to confirm your booking we ask you to sign a copy of our venue hire contract (available on request) and pay 50% deposit.
We would love to talk to you about holding your event at the Victoria and Albert Museum, please do contact the Corporate and Private Events team for further information.
