

Make a Beatrix Potter Christmas card

Beatrix Potter remains one of the world's best-selling and best-loved children's authors, having written and illustrated 28 books, including her 23 Tales which have sold more than 100 million copies. But before she made her name in the world of publishing, Potter's first commercial success, and possibly where the idea of turning her inventions into storybooks originated, was with her designs for greetings cards.

One of her more elaborate card designs is this delightful Christmas card of a coconut with two mice hiding inside, which you can make using this free downloadable template.

The downloading and printing of this resource is for personal and non-commercial educational use only.

You will need:

- 2 x A4 sheets of thin card or heavyweight white paper
- Small pair of craft scissors
- PVA glue and brush
- Colour printer

Instructions

- Download and print the PDF templates
- Cut out the front and back of the card
- Glue the reverse sides of the front and back together
- Fold to create the closed coconut

Front

Back

