

V&A Academy Unlocked: The City

Walking Tour with Mike Berlin

Friday 25 November | 11.00– 14.30

Location: Offsite, meeting point will be confirmed, close to Liverpool Street

The tour will take you through the back streets and purlieus of the City of London, exploring the remaining fragments of the ancient capital and topography of the great events and key social and economic trends of the medieval and early modern city. Amid the soaring towers of the 21st century, we shall search out the vestiges of ancient moments in London's history, from its roots in late antiquity to the era of the great fire.

Linked to the autumn course Birth of a Global City: London 1066 – 1666 led by Mike Berlin

PROGRAMME

10.45-11.00	Arrival at Meeting the point near to Liverpool Street Station
11.00	Welcome by Mike Berlin and start of the walking tour
12.20	20-25 minutes convenience break at Spitalfield Market *
12.40	Walking tour continues
14.30	Tour ends next to Monument Underground Station

*To find out more about facilities and where to get food at Spitalfields click here

For questions about the walking tour, please email courses@vam.ac.uk