

V&A Academy Unlocked Study Day
Spitalfields Walking Tour
with Mike Berlin

Friday 26 May 2023

11.00-14.30 GMT

Location: Off-site - Meet at Liverpool Street Station, South-West Entrance (EC2M 7PY)

This walk will explore Spitalfields, one of London's most famous quarters. A place of settlement of migrants and site of production of the world-famous silks, seen in the V&A's textile collections, Spitalfields has been shaped by the cultures of Huguenots, Jewish, Irish and Bangladeshi communities over four centuries.

Linked to the A History of London: 1666 – 1851 course led by Mike Berlin

PROGRAMME

10.45-11.00 Arrival at Meeting the point near to Liverpool Street Station

11.00 Welcome by Mike Berlin and start of the walking tour

12.20-12.40 convenience break at Spitalfields Market, likely near Christ Church Spitalfields. (Find out more about facilities and where to get food at Spitalfields click here)

12.40 Walking tour continues

14.30 We will end the walk at Liverpool Street Station, around Bishopsgate

For any questions about the walking tour ahead of the day, please email courses@vam.ac.uk

Please allow plenty of time to arrive at the meeting point between 10.45-11.00 GMT.

You might like to use TfL planner to plan your journey.

Should you'll run late, please email a.wang@vam.ac.uk as well as courses@vam.ac.uk at your earliest and we'll get in touch as quickly as we can so that we can direct you to catch up with the group.
Alternatively, please call Contact Centre on 020 7942 2000 and ask them to email on your behalf to these emails and we will do our best to direct you to catch up with the group.

Off-site meeting point

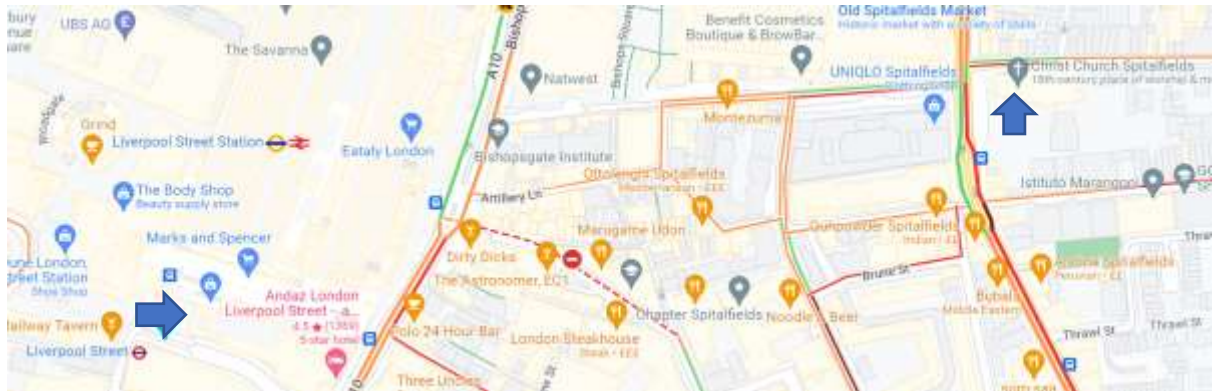

We'll start the tour Liverpool Street Station, South-West Entrance

Our meeting point will be outside the station (next to McDonald's), London EC2M 7PY

For a detailed map, please click here or search 'McDonald's London EC2M 7PY' on your mobile device.

We likely will stop at Christ Church Spitalfields for a short break if possible

We will end the walk at Liverpool Street Station, around Bishopsgate

