Meet the company – Swallow’s Wings Puppetry

Swallow’s Wings Puppetry celebrates African Caribbean culture through puppet shows and puppet making.

They share stories that spark imagination and lift spirits.

Their shows are inspired by African and Caribbean tales and connect with all people. They create a safe space to explore and learn. They believe that sharing stories builds community, and that storytelling and puppets are a rich and gentle way to engage, connect, and heal.