

Event and artist information

This free, drop-in event will be running over selected Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays in the Summer holidays.

This event will take place in John Madejski Courtyard Garden (ground floor of the museum). In case of wet weather, it will take place indoors in the Art Studio, Level 0 of the V&A Learning Centre.

In the Garden, there will be tables and benches as well as stools and chairs. We will have ear defenders and squishy seats nearby.

In the Art Studio (in case of wet weather) there will be tables and chairs, squishy seats and ear defenders nearby.

Visual instructions, widgit symbol, large format and plain text versions of the instructions will be at the activity station for all families to use.

Artist information

Drawn Poorly is a Manchester-based project that creates welcoming, creative spaces for people with experience of illness and disability. Through zines, workshops and creative projects, Drawn Poorly help people to share their stories, connect with others and start conversations about living with chronic illness, disability or mental health related illness- seeking to remove stigma and celebrate creativity.
