

V&A Academy

MUSEUM SKILLS: A PRACTICAL TOOLKIT

Introduction

Using the V&A's Practical Expertise as a catalyst for discussion, this course offers a rare opportunity to go behind the scenes in a range of departments and learn how a national museum operates.

V&A staff and expert colleagues from across the UK will discuss their roles and reflect on the constantly changing landscape of today's cultural sector. We will offer a fresh and contemporary perspective to help shape your understanding of the practical skills you need to work in museum and gallery settings.

This online course comprises live presentations, panel discussions, exclusive interviews, and group workshop sessions, designed to create an engaging and interactive experience in whichever time zone you are joining from. You will gain an understanding of a broad range of current thinking and critical approaches to museum-making.

Information

Wednesdays, 21 January – 18 March 2026, 13.00 – 16.30. Online.

Watch session recordings on demand, until Friday 29th May 2026.
