

Young V&A Sensory Friendly Studio for Families Visitor Information

Location

Play Studio, Learning Centre, Lower Ground Floor, Young V&A, Cambridge Heath Road, E2 9PA

Overview

A creative workshop for children with sensory differences or SEND, and their families.

The workshop is relaxed and designed with you and your child(ren) in mind. There will be several creative activities and families are free to explore in their own time and at their own pace.

You can arrive anytime during the 90-minute duration, and it's fine to take a break in our dedicated breakout space or elsewhere in the museum and re-enter the workshop.

Contact

We know that visiting a museum as a family requires lots of planning. If you would like further information or would like to tell us about your child's needs in advance of the session, please contact us by email: yvalearningevent@vam.ac.uk

Further Information

Accessibility at the museum:

- Please check out our Access page for full information.
- We will have a sensory tent in the workshop space during the event. Our Reading Room, a quiet space, can also be used throughout the day.
- We have three accessible toilets in the museum and a Changing Places compliant toilet with a ceiling track hoist system (www.changing-places.org), on the lower ground floor.
- Our museum entrance is fitted with an induction loop, and we have several interactive hearing caps fitted with induction loops in the museum.
- We have tactile books available to use during your visit that can be taken with you during the performance.
- Ear defenders are also available to use during your visit and can be requested at the front desk. These can be taken round the gallery and during the performance.
- If you'd like to borrow a wheelchair, fill in this accessibility aid form at least 24 hours in advance of your visit.

Getting here:

- Our visual story shows pictures of the museum and how to access our spaces.
- The nearest underground station is Bethnal Green (it's a 2-minute walk from there). The nearest overground station is Cambridge Heath (a 5-minute walk). Please note that the nearest station with step-free access is Whitechapel (0.8 miles).
- Our entrance is step-free and wheelchair accessible.
- Parking for cars is limited, so we advise using public transport. The nearest accessible parking spaces are at Parmiter Street.

About the event:

- This is a family event. Please book tickets for everyone in your group. Children must be accompanied by an adult during the workshop.
- The event will take place in the Play Studio, located in the Learning Centre on the Lower Ground Floor.
- Visitors will be welcome to move around, make noise and leave or re-enter the session throughout.

Young V&A

Visual Journey:

Here is a visual journey from the museum entrance to the Learning Studio where we will be hosting the workshop.

You can either get the lift or take the stairs down to the Lower Ground Floor.

At the bottom of the stairs or lift, you will see the doors for the Clore Learning Centre, go through here.

Young V&A

Here we have our Community Room; this is where you will get your tickets checked and can wait in this room if you arrive early to the workshop. Tables and chairs can be used by the visitors to picnic.

If you follow along the corridor from the back of the Community Room (our staff can help you find it) we have our Learning Studio, set up as a workshop space. You will be greeted by the facilitator when you come in.