

Meet the artists – Leap then Look

Leap Then Look was established in Spring 2019 by artists Lucy Cran and Bill Leslie. They create art works, participatory projects, workshops and events for people of all ages and abilities.

Their focus is on working together, inspiring playfulness and experimentation. During their sessions participants are inspired by contemporary art to create their own work, including making objects, performance, installation, film, and photography.